'Forget me not'

Oscar, who died before he was born last year, left his Mum and Dad with some beautiful momentos - a Prayer shawl from PHNA and a felt heart for each of their pockets.

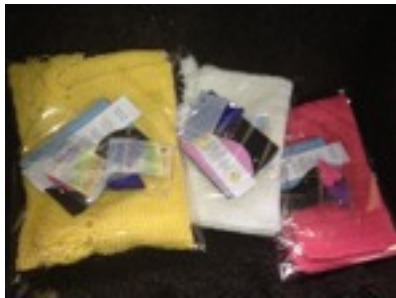

In response to the PHNA and the gratitude expressed by Oscar's parents, Tennielle and Mark, the team at PHNA have commenced packaging pink and blue Shawls and Hearts for neonatal units.

Tennielle was inspired by the gifts from PHNA and has since been crafting little felt elephants with an accompanying verse to add to our Prayer shawl packs.

'Forget Me Not'

An elephant never forgets. This small elephant helps you remember the happy times. Remember the times when you smiled, loved and laughed. Remember that your baby is precious and as parents you will never forget their memory and your love for them will never fade. This elephant can be tucked into your pocket to remember all the good times and comfort you through the difficult times. Remember, an elephant never forgets.

Inspired by Oscar.
